Nazis Halt Drive On 'Enemies'

Repercussions In Foreign Lands Feared

BERLIN, July 29.—(AP) Nazi chieftains today called off their drive on "state enemies," it was learned from a high source.

According to this source, the suppression of Jews and Catholics was ordered "softpedaled" because of repercussions of the Nazi drive in foreign lands.

The decision was reached after a harried council at the mountain retreat of Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler at Oversalzberg. In attendance, it was said, were Gen. Werner von Blomberg, minister of war, Hermann Wilhelm Goering, head of the secret police, and other Nazi leaders.

Consider Plebiscite

Impressed with political expedience of halting Publisher Julius Streicher's Jewish strictures, the leaders at the week-end conference, it was learned, considered whether to call a national plebiscite to show confidence in the Nazi regime.

The leaders were told of inimical reactions abroad to move against Jews, Catholics and the Steel Helmits. They reflected a change wherby Jews will be considered for military enlistment if they have only two Jewish grandparents, a proposal seen as the first breach in the non-Aryan warfare.

To Halt Terrorism

A national police campaign was planned against individual acts of terrorism which made it plain that further pressure against Jews, intellectuals and other "reactionaries" will be in the state's hands.

Special attention was reported to have been paid to reactions in England, with whom Germany seeks to cultivate a great friendship. The crusades in New York—the riot on the liner Bremen and Mayor La Guardia's denial of a license to a German masseur—also were discussed.

It was reported that Franz Seldte nearly sought an interview regarding the action against the Steel Helmits which he leads.

See Effect On Olympics

Cognizance also was taken of the possible effect of the state's policies on the 1936 Olympic Games, on which Germany was banking strong-

Roosevelt Aids Win Tax Battle

WASHINGTON, July 29—(AP) — A double victory was chalked up in congress today by the New Deal leaders seeking to push the new tax bill through before the session ends.

First, the senate tabled 52 to 10 a Republican proposal that congress adjourn August 10, before the tax bill could be enacted; second, the house ways and means committee rejected 18 to 6 a Republican motion to eliminate graduated corporation income taxes from the bill.

Measure Drafted

Both developments came as the full house committee began its study of a measure drafted by Democratic members in secret sessions and formally introduced late today by Chairman Doughton, Democrat, North Carolina. In its present form, it imposes new taxes on inheritances and gifts in addition to those already levied on estates and gifts; boosts the levies on individual incomes above $50,000; lifts existing excess profits taxes and levies a graduated tax of 13½ to 16½ per cent on the net income of corporations.

The adjournment resolution was offered by Senator Hastings, Republican, Delaware, who, with other Republicans, has been advocating that congress end its session promptly by dropping the tax bill now and taking it up either at a special session this fall or at the regular session next winter.

Maneuver Wins

Democratic leaders so maneuvered things as to shut off discussion, however, when Senator Pittman, Nevada, moved that the Hastings resolution be reconsidered. Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, promptly moved that McNary's motion be tabled.

Robinson's motion was not debatable.

When the roll was called only 10 Republicans voted against him. Four Republicans and La Follette, third party Progressive, joined 47 Democrats in voting the other way.

The full house committee, in its first two-hour session on the bill written by the Democratic committee, took only one vote. That was to strike out the section stipulating that all corporations making a net income of $15,000 a year or less shall pay a 13½ per cent tax on it and those making more than that a 14½ per cent levy.

"Face Saver" Seen

That schedule would replace the existing 12½ per cent tax on all corporation net income, regardless of size. The President had asked a range of 10½ to 16½ per cent, but even the Democrats had rejected that as unfair. Some conceded the 13½-14½ rate was a "face saver" agreed to in order to prevent outright "repudiation" of the President's recommendation.

A further stiff fight on that point when the bill reaches the senate floor, possibly later this week, was expected.

On the corporation income tax hailed the vote was strictly partisan. The Democrats against six Republicans, although many of the 16 Democrats and Progressives voted for, but for political reasons, they said they had agreed to "go along."

Typhoon Grips Formosa Island

TOKYO, July 30—(Tuesday)—(AP)—The Range (Japanese) News Agency reported today from Taihoku the whole island of Formosa was in the grip of one of the worst typhoons ever experienced there.

The central part of the island was reported suffering extensive and severe damage. The city of Shinchiku, which suffered from two disastrous earthquakes this year, was hard hit.

Trains ceased operating on the island and communication wires were down in many places. Large trees were uprooted, and fires were ended, fanned by sky-high gales and rapidly flying through the air.

An unknown number of houses were destroyed in the thickly-populated areas. Banana and sugar plantations were seriously damaged.

All streams were rising dangerously in Central Formosa.

Taihoku was in darkness early today after the rising winds had damaged the power house.

The typhoon is the third this season to hit Formosa.

Laska Meted 10 Years For Conspiracy

Dapper Little Defender Of Kidnapers Will Appeal Case

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 29.—(AP)—Jumpy little Ben S. Laska, dapper defender of kidnapers related 10 years today for conspiracy in the $200,000 abduction of Charles F. Urschel, oil millionaire.

Bitterly, he sputtered a vehement denial later of reports he said he has heard that he might try suicide to avoid prison.

"I know people are saying I may 'blow my top' the frail Denver attorney said. They're going to demanded!

"But you never heard of a Jew with $11110 a himself, did you?"

Laska, whose conviction was hailed by the government as a victory in the drive against racketeers, who defend kidnapers, protested the term. An appeal was filed immediately.

"Ten years," he cried. "They gave me 10 years for taking a fee to defend a man, they stood me up just like I was a common criminal, instead of an attorney who has practiced his profession 27 years. "It's awful . . . awful . . . to treat an innocent man like that."

Laska was the third person to be sentenced by Federal Judge Edgar S. Vaught for various roles in the machine-gun abduction of the Oklahoma City oil man July 22, 1932. Urschel was returned unharmed. Most of the ransom was recovered.

The conviction of Laska was based on testimony by Edward Bremer, Kansas City banker, Clara Feldman, that the Denver attorney

Treaty Repudiation Group At Stalemate

GENEVA, July 29.—(AP)—A stalemate followed by adjournment of the League of Nations' special committee on restraint for treaty repudiators brought further confusion today to representatives of powers which hope to resolve Italian and Ethiopian differences.

Almost on the eve of the session of the council to discuss the African situation, which involves several treaties, the special committee failed to reach an agreement and tabled its deliberations for several months.

The action was regarded in league circles as a step signifying. The committee of 13 members was created as a consequence of Germany's repudiation of the military clauses of the Versailles treaty, but it was considering generally the subject of applying restraining measures to treaty violators.

Penalties Proposed

A subcommittee had found that offending nations might be deprived of war materials and products essential to their manufacture. It also suggested they be deprived of financial credits.

These recommendations came to the full committee, but it failed either to register approval or disapproval and adjourned.

This development started a new wave of speculation in quarters already speculating on the probable outcome of the diplomatic maneuvering of Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia who has announced he is negotiating treaties and is known to desire that the league accept Italy the aggressor in the African trouble.

The ruler of Africa's empire, in his latest communication with the league, makes it plain he expects the council to receive the mission of conciliation and arbitration and instruct it to go to the bottom of the dispute.

Council Urged To Act

The emperor asks specifically "an intervention of the members of the council of the League of Nations to decide between the respective intentions of the two groups of arbitrators."

In another note, handed by Ethiopia's foreign minister, Bolatein Gueta Herouy, to Italian Minister, at Addis Ababa today, the emperor made it plain. It said it will not consider occupation of a province as a partial discussion of the dispute.)

These tactics were said, in league circles, to be a maneuver which has embarrassed Premier Italy's premier, in an awkward diplomatic position.

And if the commission, after going into such matters, makes a recommendation which the council approves, Italy's refusal to accept it would be pronounced an aggressor.

Beating Probed In Robles Case

TUCSON, July 29.—(UP)—A man who claimed he "knew too much" about the Robles kidnaping was standing tonight from a terrific beating that left him unconscious beside a desert roadside, while officers watched his bizarre story of assault by two men assertedly connected with the abduction of Juan Robles, in April, 1934.

Officers found Rex Palmer, mechanic, beside a highway after they received a call to "come and pick up a dead man." No revelation of what was learned from questioning which was made by either federal investigators or the sheriff's office.

Dorcilene Cabrera, 44 years old, former lawyer arrested in San Diego, was bound over for trial on the charge of attacking Goya Estrada, newspaper carrier, who delivered the first Robles note, and regarded as a material witness in the only other development of the day.

Noted Missouri Educator Dies

COLUMBIA, Mo., July 29.—(AP)—Dr. Walter Williams, 71, one-time former president of the University of Missouri and founder of one of the world's first school of journalism here, died at his home at 9:10 o'clock tonight.

A high school graduate who used newspaper work as a path to a high place in the scholastic world, Dr. Walter Williams attained distinction as one of the most eminent American journalists of the middle of his time.

He said of him that he found journalism a trade and helped make it a profession.

His work, which began as a reporter's "devil," schemes of the activities of editor, author, good will ambassador, founder and dean of the first collegiate school of jour-

Big Profits In Power Disclosed

Probe Shows Bulk Of Gains Went To Insiders

WASHINGTON, July 29. (AP)—Profits of $2,800,000 to insiders of the Associated Gas and Electric Company while stockholders received little or nothing were disclosed today by the senate lobby committee.

This testimony was drawn out as the committee headed into an investigation of the company's $700,000 fight against the administration public utility act and received an account of futile efforts to locate Howard C. Hopson, important company figure, to place him upon its witness stand. Hopson's private companions were reported to have taken the large profits.

Vote Before House

At the same time, the bitter resolution deadlocking the utilities bill came before the house. A heated flurry of oratory, and a parliamentary point of order raised by a supporter of the bill and sustained by Speaker Byrns, however, left the situation unchanged.

Representative Huddleston, Democrat, Alabama, presented a resolution, asking, in effect, for instructions from the house on how far forces should permit Ben Cohen, administration aide, to attend conferences on the measure as the senate conferees desire. The "point of order prevented a vote.

Texan Enters Battle

The day, also, saw Representative Cari Estes, Lonyview publisher, blocked in a determined effort to get read to the senate, committee a statement accusing it of "whitewashing." He got in the record, however, a caustic denial he had been paid by the Texas Electric Light Company for a radio speech which he delivered there.

The Estes statement said the publisher wanted to place in the records checks totaling $542 for his expenses while in Washington in opposition to oil legislation, and added:

"However, there is another item which I had when I came to Washington, I think in the amount of approximately $200, which was expended for my hotel room Saturday afternoon, when I was notified I was removed from top to bottom while I was on a trip to Great Falls.

"Incidentally, I hope I do not have the investigator of this committee to fight for this surprise and unauthorized shakedown."

H. A. Blomquist, chief committee investigator, has maintained "there was not a word of truth in any such publication" and that the committee had not known "or cared" in what hotel Estes resided. The Texan appeared at his own request.

Estes, a member of the house, will see also refusing the privilege of a prepared statement to F. S. Bor-

Will Rogers Says...

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., July 29—Say, did you read about Mussolini's army being camped in a stream, and the Abyssinians went above and diverted the creek, and left 'em with no water? (That's a dry country down there). I can't imagine anything more disconcerting to an army than to wake up in the morning and find the river has run under you.

Modern armies have everything, but there is just something about a native in any country in the world, where he seems to have more sense than any civilized army. Look at the Apache Geronimo drove 15 sets of United States army officers "nuts"; the Boers hid the English's tax for two years; Cortez' great, great, grandchildren in Mexico is still trying to whip the Yaquis. If I was over there in Ethiopia, I would pick out the most civilized one I could find, cause they are the dumbest.

Yours,

Will Rogers.

Calles Forces In Mexico Are Hard Pressed

Four States Witnessing Spread Of Agrarian Movement

MEXICO, D. F., July 29.—(AP)—Four states tonight witnessed the spread of governmental unrest against political allies of Gen. Plutarco Elias Calles, ex-, the man whose word for years was the political law of Mexico.

Public manifestations were seen in the states of Nuevo Leon, Tabasco, Tamaulipas and one in Sonora, the "iron man's" home state.

Almost as significant as these demonstrations, in the eyes of political observers in the capital, was the fact that Plutarco Elias Calles, brother of the former president, had been defeated 10 to 1 in his candidacy for the governorship of Nuevo Leon. Gen. Fortunato Zuazua won the poll.

In Hermosillo, the capital of Sonora, several thousand persons paraded as a protest against the seating in the governorship of the newly-elected candidate, Ramon Ramos, regarded as a political affiliate of Calles. Protest leaders there cannot take oath under the constitution because he neither was born in Sonora nor has he resided there for 10 years.

The election in Nuevo Leon was quiet, federal troops seeing to it that order was maintained.

Representatives of 37 labor organizations marched through the streets of Tampico, demanding that Gen. Emanuel Villarreal, governor of Tamaulipas, resign from office.

Villarreal was an ally of General Calles as was former Governor Lazaro Cardenas, who resigned last week under fire as war minister. Mexico, D. F., today. It was re-

Tragedy Is Worst In History

Tucsonans Plunge Over Steep Cliff

FREDONIA, July 29.—Seven persons, a man, three women and three children—were killed tonight, their bodies strewn 75 feet down a rocky canyon side, when an automobile plunged from U. S. Highway 89 on Houserock hill, 40 miles northwest of Lee's Ferry bridge.

A three-year-old boy, eighth occupant of the car, and whose parents died in the rolling plunge, escaped death.

The dead, all members of the Lattner Da- -laints church colony in Tucson, are:

Rieburn E. Bischoff.
Mrs. Rieburn E. Bischoff.
Rieburna Bischoff, eight years old.
Jo Ann Bischoff, seven years old.
Mrs. Howard Martineau, daughter of Mrs. Bischoff.
Madge Martineau, 18 months old.
Mrs. Frank Webb, reported related to the Bischoff family.

The party, the members of which all were related, was returning to Tucson from Utah.

Investigators, who went to the scene said it could not be determined who was at the wheel, but that it was apparent the accident occurred when the driver attempted to regain a sharp turn and strayed soft gravel at the highway's edge.

One Life Claimed Every 42¾ Hours

The automobile accident that snuffed out the lives of seven persons on a mountain highway yesterday was the worst in Arizona history.

Previously, the most serious accident occurred in February, 1934, when six persons were killed and more than a score injured as a huge passenger bus overturned on a rainstorm - ged Agua. Prior to that, the state's worst accident record five lives when a fast passenger train struck and demolished an automobile at the Coldwater crossing 18 miles west of Phoenix.

Victims of last night's accident were the 112th, 113th, 114th, 115th, 116th and 117th of 1935. Fatalities as a result of motor vehicle accidents are Arizona highways since January 1.

Despite the gloomy death toll, now far ahead for this date of any previous year on record, means that automobile accidents in this state have claimed one life every 42¾ hours.

Moeur Heard By President

WASHINGTON, July 29.—(AP)—Governor Moeur had a "highly satisfactory" talk with President Roosevelt today, missed out on plans to confer with Rexford Guy Tugwell and Harry L. Hopkins and then announced he was returning to Arizona tomorrow.

Governor Moeur said he had conferred with the President "about getting some projects for Arizona" and that they had also discussed a proposal for development of the Lower Gila valley as a resettlement project.

From the White House, the Arizona executive went to the office of Works Progress Administrator Hopkins only to find he was out of town. The governor also had intended calling on Tugwell, the resettlement administrator, but discovered at the last moment he likewise was not available.

"My talk with Mr. Roosevelt was highly satisfactory," Governor Moeur said after spending nearly an hour in the executive offices.

Accompanying him were Dr. P. H. Ross, director of agricultural extension in Arizona; James R. Moore, special assistant attorney general in charge of Colorado river matters, and T. H. O'Brien, chairman of Arizona's state board of public welfare.

"We talked about a lot of things, but mostly about . . . getting some projects for Arizona," the governor stated, adding he told Mr. Roosevelt "we can use a lot of them."

Moeur said during their discussion of the Gila valley project they informed President $50,000 acres of land were available for use there and that it could "easily support an additional 15,000 persons."

Lighter Mine Taxes Sought

WASHINGTON, July 29.—(AP)—A move to exempt corporations mining gold and silver from the excess profits tax and limit the income tax rates on sales of mines under the new revenue bill was initiated today by Representative Scrugham, Democrat, Nevada.

Scrugham called upon representatives from all the mining states to confer tomorrow after he said he had learned that "a terrifically severe blow" was about to be struck at the gold and silver mining industries.

The Nevadan said he understood the bill would not exempt gold and silver mining corporations from an excess profits tax and that it would include a tax of "upwards of 70 per cent" on income derived from the sale of mines. Under existing law the corporations are exempt from the excess profits tax.

Woman Is Identified As 'Swamp Murderer'

CHICAGO, July 29.—(AP)—Mrs. Blanche Dunkel tonight identified Mrs. Evelyn Smith, rushed from New York by airplane, as the woman she has accused of the torso slaying of Kevin Lang.

The identification was made in the presence of Capt. Daniel Gilbert, chief investigator for the district attorney, and Charles Dougherty, assistant district attorney, when the women were brought together for a brief but dramatic meeting.

"Yes, that's the woman I've been talking about," Mrs. Dunkel, 42 years old, mother-in-law of the victim, said as she faced Mrs. Smith in the private room of Captain Gilbert's office.

Mrs. Smith uttered no word to her accuser as was led away to the office of Wilbert F. Crowley, assistant district attorney.

Mrs. Dunkel, earlier, in the investigation, had been quoted by investigators as saying she had paid Mrs. Smith, a federal blood of $2, $100 for slaying Lang. Mrs. Smith, police helper, was drugged and strangled last July. His body was dismembered. His torso was found July 4 in a swamp near Hammond, Ind. Several days later his legs were found in a trunk.

Mrs. Dunkel told authorities following her arrest July 11 that she had engaged Mrs. Smith for the crime, had promised her a $500 fee

Charges Filed In Auto Death

A MANSLAUGHTER charge was filed yesterday against Myers (Mike) Velasquez, 29 years old, of Mesa and Phoenix street, in connection with the death of Mrs. Isabel Dunkel, 36 years old, 1115 Jeanette, 45 years old, of Phoenix, who alleged- ly was struck and fatally injured by a hit-and-run automobile early afternoon near 12th street and Broadway road.

A coroner's jury, after hearing testimony at an inquest held by Nat T. McKee, ex-officio coroner and West Phoenix Precinct Constable, decided the woman's death was the result of car carelessly driven by (Mike) Myers Velasquez.

Velasquez and two friends riding with him in the car, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Tapia, 1216 South 32nd street, testified at the inquest. They said they saw Mrs. Dunkel on the edge of the highway, that Velasquez swerved the automobile here.

Operation Aids 'Shrinking Man'

MINNEAPOLIS, July 29.—(AP)—Hans Nelson, 52 years old, the "shrinking man," who underwent an operation to graft tissue from over-active parathyroid glands in the hope it would halt the shrinking process, will be two inches or 3½ inches from his stature, today was reported by the University hospital to be in "satisfactory condition."

He is in "up and around" at the hospital, and is expected to return home in a few days.

Surgeons who performed the operation expressed no hope the operation would restore Nelson's lost height. Nelson is a painter by trade. The "shrinkage" occurred over a 12-year period.

Work To Start Immediately On Two Phoenix Park Units

CONTRACT awards for two units of the city-federal recreation and public recreation development program were approved yesterday by Howard S. Reed, state Public Works administrator at Washington.

The engineer's approval will permit work to begin on the projects immediately.

The projects are construction of the recreational building in the 227-acre Class A municipal park, situated at the end of 35th avenue and installation of an underground irrigation system for the golf course and greenswards in the park.

Contract for the recreational building, a WPA project previously awarded to F. W. Stumock, that

Fletcher Issues Call For Campaign Battle

WASHINGTON, July 29.—(AP)—Directly charging that the "New Deal seeks to pervert or subvert the constitution," Henry P. Fletcher, chairman of the Republican National committee, tonight invited citizens of all political faiths to help "meet this challenge."

Fletcher's assertion—apparently an opening gun in the Republican 1936 campaign—stated the issue as versus the constitution as a major issue in the coming presidential campaign, he said, will "transcend mere party lines."

Following once mentioning the Democratic party in a 15-minute radio broadcast, a cut at President Roosevelt and the New Deal, Fletcher declared:

"The Republican party welcomes the aid and support of every citizen who is interested in this struggle to preserve our constitution and to save our free institutions."

Following close upon the recent increase in Republican activities, including the round of conferences at the Palo Alto ball and sustained by Herbert Hoover, Fletcher's address was the first partisan utterance of importance. He remarked to newspapermen be-

Work - Relief Limit Slashed

WASHINGTON, July 29—(AP)—A half-billion dollar limit today was reported clamped by the administration on new work-relief funds available for state and local public works.

If carried out as disclosed by high officials, the program would represent a $450,000,000 slash in the $1,900,000,000 originally contemplated for non-federal Public Works Administration projects.

The drastic reduction coincided with an announcement by Secretary Ickes that $501,111,210 in loan applications had been filed with state PWA directors. Of this total $84,- 282,611 had been approved and forwarded to Washington.

Bandits Kill 12 In Attack

TOKYO, July 29.—(Tuesday)—(AP)—The Rengo (Japanese) news agency correspondent reported today from Weihsien, that Manchukuoan bandits had up the Heingan-Tsitsihar express last night, killed 11 or 12 passengers, mostly Japanese.

Among the slain were one Russian and four Manchukuoans, believed mistaken for Japanese. The correspondent said.

The bandit gang, numbering 60 or more, pulled spikes from the track about 20 miles east of Heingan, partially derailing the night express.

When the train halted they entered the coaches, with drawn revolvers, deliberately sought out the Japanese passengers, the correspondent reported, and shot them down.

The passengers killed were mostly in the second class coaches.

The Manchukuoan, of the bandits was Sergeant Imamura of the Independent guard corps of the Kwantung army.
